

Hand Grip Function Study

More than 6.5 million stroke survivors in the US suffer from impairments in the paretic hand that limit daily living activities.

The Hand Rehabilitation Laboratory is currently working on a study to increase the hand grip capabilities in stroke survivors. We are looking for healthy young (18-30 year old) and old (45-80 year old) participants, as well as stroke survivors to participate in this study.

Participants will be compensated

UWM Hand Grip Research Study

Leah Enders

leahenders@gmail.com

Na Jin Seo, Ph.D.

seon@uwm.edu

414-229-6190